"Well," said Grant, "I think I can make settlement with Lee this summer."

The recent Encyclical is but a repetition of many others which have been published by the Popes, and especially of that issued by Gregory XVI. on the 15th of August, 1832. Gregory II, Boniface VIII, Innocent III, and a great many other Popes, moreover, had said the same things which were repeated [illegible] by Pius IX on the 8th of December last.

Oliver Lesley, of Attica, Indiana, has just made a successful experiment with his new submarine battery in the Wabash, near that place. A heavy column of water and ice was thrown three hundred feet into the air. Some of the spectators narrowly escaped injury from the falling fragments of ice, some weighing over fifty pounds. Mr. Lesley goes to Washington with his invention as soon as the Potomac opens.

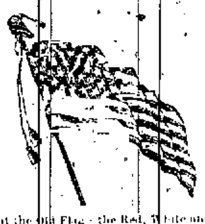
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE.



No Flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the Stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it, ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 6, 1865.

The Rebel Situation.

It was only upon the urgent demand of necessity, and to lend a few more days of life to the rebel cause, that the Confederate Capital was abandoned to the approaching Union forces. Had it been possible to maintain themselves there, the place would still have been under the rebel flag, and the Examiner, Enquirer and Sentinel would still be uttering their alternate words of cheering and reproach, addressed to Southern readers or rebel politicians. But Grant came, thundering at its gates, and Richmond was abandoned. Day after day had the conflict raged—each hour waxing nearer and nearer. At last, destruction came to its very doors. We have not particulars enough to form correct opinions; but the last days of March seem to have initiated a death struggle between the rival armies, and tens of thousands, doubtless, fell victims of the strife before Richmond became ours. We gather from the reports we have, that Lee's army has fallen back upon the line of the South Side railroad, and is waiting attack; but the forces that stormed and carried the formidable works which were raised before Richmond and Petersburg, can hardly be stayed by the demoralized fragments of an army, stationed behind such inferior defences as these must be.

Steadily Sherman's gallant men are marching northward with very little opposition and capable of doing wonders. There is no fear for them nor for their leader; the future will show them to be invincible, and as the circle of Federal bayonets narrows around the comparatively small extent of territory that now is occupied as the principal theatre of war, the question arises, where will the Confederate armies find a possible way of escape? They are surrounded with foes, in a great measure cut off from supplies, and so fast becoming depleted of men, that soon, with the continual desertions, and the constant loss from battle, it will be impossible for them to make head against Grant or Sherman, and the question is constantly asked, what will they do?

Many suggest unthinkingly that the combined rebel forces will march westward, and seek refuge perhaps in Mexico. The idea is scarce worth answering. It would be most difficult to march any distance without being confronted with a superior force, as the railroads of the country are not longer at their command, and rebellion is a much harder road to travel than it was but one short year ago. The better reasoning is, that the only rebel hope is to fight it out desperately in Virginia; to rally all their means for the final struggle and make the last theatre of war the bloodiest scene of the rebellion. Then all hope failing, the leaders can endeavor to elude search, and escape where and as they best may.

It is surprising that the rank and file of the Southern army should so well remain together, and so faithfully [illegible]. [illegible] have dwindled down to scarce more than one third of the numbers they boasted only one year ago, many have gone home dissatisfied, while many more have deserted to our own lines, but still there remains a formidable number, over 100,000 men who still cling to the cause, and bravely die in its defence. Yet the Southern people are tired of war, they feel themselves conquered, to use their own word, they are "subdued." Savannah and Charleston welcomed the soldiers of the Union as a relief, while we receive word that Richmond greeted the entrance of our troops with "enthusiasm." Everybody recollects reading of a prophesy made hundreds of years ago, by some old German, who wrote that in 1861 a great war should spring up among a people beyond the sea to the West; that after four years of strife, when the country was at the brink of ruin, peace should follow and united as of old, the people should be happier than ever. It is not worth while to question the fact of the prophesy while we can so easily appropriate its moral. Worn out with warring we have no desire to impose disgraceful terms on the disappointed rebel masses, and who doubts that with peace once more bestowed upon us, as a people, notwithstanding all our losses and strife, we can be wiser and happier than ever before.

A Call from the Wounded.

PHILADELPHIA, April 5, 5:30 P. M.—To W. S. Ladd, Treasurer Christian Commission—The great battle now raging; wounded falling fast; our delegates and wagons in the field; Treasury empty; $100,000 needed; subscription opened in Boston Exchange this morning; twenty New York merchants gave $20,000. How much can we draw on you? Telegraph immediately.

GEO. H. STUART.

PATRIOTS OF PORTLAND.—You see the necessity; will you answer the call? The money you contribute will be immediately forwarded by telegraph, and actually relieve the suffering conquerors of Richmond! They call to you now in the hour of their great necessity, and greater triumph. Give, now, and give liberally; then you may enjoy the proud recollection that, though you could not be among the heroes of the conflict, you were able to extend the arm of mercy across the continent, and raise up and support the wounded. Contributions should be made immediately to W. S. Ladd, at Ladd & Tilton's.

DON'T DESERVE A NOTICE.—We see by the Statesman that the low, miserable rebel sheet, published at Salem has, through a correspondent at Portland, assailed the Rev. G. H. Atkinson with lying slander. The Statesman defends Mr. Atkinson in a few just and able words, spoken in his favor, that we heartily endorse, as will all his friends. Still in this connection we say that in our opinion the Statesman elevates the low and cowardly scoundrels who control and edit that paper, in attempting to refute its lies by fact and argument. The people do not deserve to have the unclean thing thrust at them in respectable columns, and argument is wasted on men and things who only deserve, what they so generally receive, the condemnation and contempt of all that is worth preserving in the community. Better let them severely alone.

LAND SALE.—We learn from Mr. J. B. Underwood, Secretary of the Oregon Central Military Road Company, that he sold on Tuesday last 7[illegible] 85,100 acres of land belonging to said company. The amount received for the same was $[illegible] in currency. We understand that several parties are expecting to buy lands at private sale as soon as the Board of Directors make the necessary order.

BRANCH MINT FOR NEVADA.—A Branch Mint for Nevada has been located at Carson City, and lately provision was made for the purchase of the ground and transfer of title to the United States.

DIED OF HEART DISEASE.—Master Knight, a lad of 14 years, from the Willopa settlement on Shoalwater Bay, died at the Astoria House, on Monday, the 27th of March, while on his way to Aurora, Marion county.—Astoria Gazette.

The telegraph to City Point has not worked for five or six hours, but it is believed a battle has taken place to-day.

The Herald's special says: The grand movement of the Army of the Potomac began on the 29th.

HEADQUARTERS, ARMY [illegible] The road taken by a portion of this army is the same over which it has travelled [illegible] vious, to wit: Vaughan road [illegible] south-west across Hatcher's Run. The column started at 3 o'clock this morning. A large cavalry force under Sheridan took the Halifax road towards Dinwiddie Court House. The infantry columns crossed Hatcher's Run [illegible] but met no opposition until within a short distance of the Boydton plank road, where the enemy's pickets were found and driven in. A division of the enemy appeared, and not knowing the strength of our forces, formed in line and charged.

The rebels were repulsed with heavy loss and a number of prisoners taken [illegible] say the movement had become [illegible] them, as they expected an attack [illegible] of Fort Stevens and their troops [illegible] get it. It is believed that the rebels were hurrying towards the South Side Road to prevent its destruction, but great [illegible] Sheridan will be a little ahead [illegible] another night we shall hear news of [illegible] tion at some point near Jacksville.

Engagement Before Richmond.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Information from City Point, dated at two o'clock Thursday [illegible] March 30th says: A very heavy cannonading commenced at 10½ o'clock this morning and continued till 11 p. m., in the direction of Petersburg. A battle was probably in progress. No particulars are known.

Information from the advance of the Army of the Potomac, dated Hatcher's Run, Thursday morning March 30 [illegible] our army under Grant at that time was [illegible] parallel with and west of the Boydton plank road and west of Hatcher's run. The important [illegible] sitions have been gained without [illegible] the enemy.

OREGONIANS WANTED.—In making up our files for the past few years, preparatory to having the same bound for safe keeping, the following are missing in the list of the Daily:

Vol. II. 1862—January 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5.
Vol. III. 1863—May 27, 28, 29, [illegible] July 1 to 28 [illegible] October 2, 3, 21; October [illegible] ber 2, 3, 10, 23, 27, 28; [illegible] 11, 15, 1864 [illegible]
Vol. IV. 1864—May 28.

The following are missing in the list of Weekly:

Vol. XII. 1862—Nov. [illegible]
Vol. XIII, 1865—January [illegible] 28 [illegible] 7; April 11.

Any person furnishing the above, or any part of them, will receive the current volume for each day for each number furnished. They must be forwarded immediately.

DISORGANIZING THE PARTY.—By [illegible] Mr. Robert M. Porter, Deputy United States Assessor for the District composed of Washington and Yamhill counties, we learn that the long established band of horse thieves and robbers in general, existing in those parts of the State, have at last been ferreted out, with a good prospect of being finally "wiped" out. The Sheriff [illegible] of the counties had succeeded in arresting a man in Polk county, who seemed to be well posted in regard to the order. He proved [illegible] witness on the part of the State, and his revelations have implicated no less than about forty others, whom the officers are after, or have already arrested. As soon as the fact became known that they were apprehended and in a fair way to be brought to justice some of the more fortunate ones immediately started for "Gwin-dom," and as the entire number of all those known to be engaged in the thieving operations are rank copperheads, it will be presumed that, if they are not convicted, the discovery of their organization will "burst up" the democratic party in the counties named, and consequently cause the whole to Mexico. Their base of operations has been Yamhill, principally, with a cache in the adjoining county, for receiving the horses and stolen goods. One of the prime pals, a man named Hembree, was so closely pressed before his capture that he killed a horse, which he had stolen from a [illegible], to secrete it. He was also under bonds to appear at the Circuit Court of Washington county on Monday next, to answer to a brutal assault upon the person of Mr. Kitty, of Lafayette.

A BUSY STREET.—Take Front street in this day, any day, lately, for the distance of over half a mile, reaching from Main to D street, and it presents an active hum of business. The sidewalks, from four until eight o'clock in the evening are literally thronged with pedestrians, and one is absolutely obliged to "edge" his way along. A man with a basket on his arm stands no chance. Thus it is too, along the wharves. Yesterday a tow of vessels took up all the available space at the steamship landing, while river steamers and barges filed an outer tier. Front is not the only active street, however, but First, Second and Washington streets begin to have considerable pretensions for business. The greatest change is apparent upon every hand, from any former season—new stores are continually opening up large stocks of merchandise, and many new faces are daily arriving; and in all respects, (except that of street improvements,) Portland is advancing very rapidly.

COMMERCIAL.—The barkentine Jane A. Falkinburg will finish loading to-day, and leave for San Francisco to-morrow morning with a cargo almost wholly of wheat, which has been on storage for some time awaiting shipment, to Valentine & Co. The cargo of her inward voyage was all discharged on Tuesday evening. The Alfred Crosby sails to-day for Victoria and Nanaimo, and the steamer George S. Wright leaves to-morrow for Victoria and New Westminster. We may reasonably expect, from present advices, that three barks and two steamers will arrive during the next eight days.

TREATMENT OF BONNETS.—The usually busy time has arrived when milliners are vexed by a rush of business to their shops. Last year's bonnets are brought out to be pressed and bleached, by those who are not able to buy the "latest style," and the process being somewhat of a fine art, the ladies, may be, will be thankful to us for information that will lead them to the possession of a good "block-head" on which to press the sky-scrapers. We can tell them. Let them obtain an interview with some property owner opposed to street improvement, and procure his cranium—it will be better than they can get anywhere else.

SALE OF THE ROAD.—The Portland and Milwaukie Macadamized road was sold yesterday at Sheriff's Sale, together with the steam ferry boat, etc., for the sum of $10,130 cash. The purchase was made for less than the amount of the judgment upon which it was seized. The buyers, Messrs. Ladd & Tilton, give notice in another column for a meeting of the stockholders, at which time the terms and conditions upon which they can be restored to their interest in the property will be made known.

THE DREDGER.—The Committee on Ways and Means have finally contracted for the dredging [illegible], which will be built and put in good running order by August 1st, 1865. D. Monnastes, of the Portland Foundry, is the contractor. The machine is to be of the scoop pattern, with a double engine. The boat to carry the machinery is planned for a length of fifty-six feet, by seventeen feet beam, with guards four and a half feet broad. Two tenders capable of conveying twenty to twenty-five tons each, are also to be made in the same agreement and stipulation.

THE WORTH OF A BEAVER HAT.—Mr. E. P. Wright, in working about some new buildings in course of construction on Second street, yesterday narrowly escaped a serious injury about the head, by wearing a beaver hat. A stick or plank broke away from above, and falling squarely upon the hat "mashed" it considerably over the eyes, and our Doctor says saved him a sore head. We expect everybody will rush to Butler's for a new beaver, now that they are considered in the light of life preservers around "a place" where new building is going on.

RECORDERS COURT.—John Sullivan and George Allen were arraigned before Justice McCoy yesterday, for disturbing the quiet [?] abode of "two unprotected squaws" on the flat across the river, and assaulting Mary Roe with a stick. They were defended by Hon. J. H. Mitchell, E. W. Hodgkinson for Prosecution. A very interesting case was made out, but we are obliged to omit the most important points. Sullivan was held to bail in the sum of $300. Allen was discharged.

THE JENNY JONES.—The case of barratry, preferred against the steamer Jenny Jones, is still in the Courts of Victoria, but is considerably "mixed." Rhys Gwynn, accused of stealing the vessel from the Hudson's Bay Co.'s Wharf on the night of the 10th of February, and running her off, is undergoing a trial for "abduction," and the Chronicle advertised on the 31st of March that the Jenny was to be sold at Seattle "by order of the Court, on Saturday, April 15th." Jimmy, some like the ubiquitous Ned of Santa Barbara notoriety in "Vigilance" times, of San Francisco, turns up occasionally in various quarters and disguises.

SINCE DIED.—The child Johnny Gallagher, an account of whose poisoning was given yesterday, died at one o'clock A. M., some nine hours after he had swallowed the fatal liquid. This should be a warning to parents, as well as to the patrons of boarding and lodging houses, to keep medicine and poisonous drugs from within reach of the little ones.

CLOSE OF THE TERM.—Mr. P. Patterson closed the first term of his Commercial Academy in this city on Tuesday evening, after a very successful winter course. His school has become one of the permanent fixtures of the place, and the second term will commence on or about the 1st of October.

may be [illegible]

JONAS W. BROWN,
Attorney-at-Law,

LEGAL TENDERS.—Legal tender notes, in lots varying from 3,000 to $5,000, sold at the Portland Stock and Exchange Board yesterday at [illegible] cents, cash.

IT IS NOT UNUSUAL TO FIND THE OWNER OF WHEELER & WILSON'S Sewing Machines, making one hundred dollars, or more, per month, by its use. These well known and popular machines will sew from 1,200 to 2,000 stitches in a minute, and is equal in dispatch of work to at least two or [illegible] seamstresses. No unassisted hand, however steady, can equal, in constant regularity and evenness, the beauty of stitch accomplished by this instrument.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF
HAS BEEN USED FOR NEARLY HALF A CENTURY,
WITH THE MOST ASTONISHING SUCCESS IN CURING
Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat,
Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup,
Liver Complaint, Bronchitis,
Difficulty of Breathing,
Asthma, and every affection of the
THROAT, LUNGS AND CHEST, INCLUDING EVEN CONSUMPTION.

There is scarcely one individual in the community who wholly escapes, during a season, from some one, however slightly developed, of the above symptoms—a neglect of which might lead to the last named, and most to be dreaded disease in the whole catalogue. The power of the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree over this class of complaints is well known; so great is the good it has performed, and so great the popularity it has acquired.

In this preparation, besides the virtues of the Cherry, there are commingled with it other ingredients of like value, thus increasing its value ten fold, and forming a Remedy whose power to soothe, to heal, to relieve, and to cure disease, exists in no other medicine yet discovered. The uncalled success that has attended the application of this medicine in all cases of has induced many physicians of high standing to employ it in their practice, some of whom advise us of the fact under their own signatures. We have space only for the names of a few of these:

GRANT'S FIRST STRATEGIC EXPLOIT.—The Territorial Enterprise, of Virginia City, State of Nevada, relates the following:

February 25th one of our compositors, John Booth, celebrated his "Silver Wedding." While the crowd of guests gathered about the stove were paying their regards to the huge brown pitcher of punch there deposited, the bridegroom of twenty five years ago related the following story of his wedding night. The wedding took place in Georgetown, Brown county, Ohio, February 25th, 1840. The bridegroom had instructed young Grant in the "Art preservative," and the young "giant" had determined to give his old "boss" a lesson in music. In short to treat him, as was the custom in that region, to a charivari. Ulysses was then preparing for West Point, and, being full of military notions, raised, equipped and commanded the charivari company. At a late hour at night he led his command against the building in which the wedding party was fortified. The house stood upon pillars elevating it from the ground and leaving a space of about five feet under the floor. Here was a chance for a display of strategy, and the embryo General saw it. Noiselessly he moved his men, armed with horns, bells, pans, and every noisy instrument that could be pressed into the service. The wedding had been set for two nights later, and a few knew this was but a feint to blind the community as to the real time fixed upon for the tying of the knot. Young Grant was not to be taken in by this weak device of the enemy. He reconnoitered the position so vigilantly that he was fully master of "the situation." When the young General thought the proper time had arrived for striking the blow which was to fill the wedding party with consternation and utterly rout and demoralize them, he gave the word and instantly every battery opened fire. As he had conjectured, he had completely surprised the enemy, and for a while the utmost confusion prevailed in the ranks of the wedding folks. Young Grant's plans were well laid but he had not calculated all the resources of the foe. A corps of the old women Hymeneal veterans—soon rallied. The floor of the building was new and quite open and the old women seized a kettle of boiling water from the stove which they poured over the floor. The hot water poured in streams through the cracks of the floor, and instantly Grant and his whole army, lately so exultant, were in full retreat, uttering howls of pain and terror. It was a complete rout, Grant and his forces crowding and stumbling over each other in the most confused and frantic manner, leaving their arms behind on the field of battle. The victory of female veterans was complete. Grant made no attempt to rally his whipped and terrified army. All were more or less scalded, Grant himself being one of the principal sufferers. Thus was Grant put to flight, and his strategy brought to naught by a corps of old women.

CORN FODDER FOR THE SOLDIERS.—The Alta's Cairo correspondent tells the following good stories of the times when the army was on corn rations:

Many are the funny incidents related of the days of the corn-federacy in the Union army. One of General Smith's boys, while under the influence of corn, hearing an army mule indulging in a bray, shouted: "Well, Mr. Mule, you can afford to bray: you have two quarts of corn a day, while I have only one." The General, chancing to pass on horseback, paused, and answered the soldier thus:

"Never mind, boys, corn is rather hard fare, but there's harder coming. We are going to have hay issued to us next."

A cheer went up, and the men declared they would willingly eat hickory bark, if General Smith led the army and thought it was best for them.

Another man made his way into General Sherman's quarters one evening, and demurely asked for a permit to buy some corn. The General told him that corn could be issued to him if he had had none. "Oh! I have had my rations of corn," he returned, "but I hadn't enough—borrowed some from a mule last night, and want to buy a lot so I can return it." The soldier was rethrust out of doors.

At another time the General was disturbed by a noise resembling the braying of innumerable donkeys. Looking out, he saw a squad of soldiers, fastened together like so many mules, and each couple led by the halter which was fastened about the neck. An officer at hand asked what this meant. He was at first answered by a series of brays, and a kicking and stamping of feet; but one of the leaders finally said: "You see, they have had their 'fodder,' now we are 'leading them to water!'"

Of course a smile passed over the faces of all who heard the rich and mirthful scene. Supplies soon came, and the boys had their regular rations as usual.

A schoolmaster writes: I was teaching school in a quiet country village. The second morning of the session I found leisure to note my surroundings, and among the scanty furniture I espied a three legged stool.

"Is that the dunce block?" I said to a little girl of five.

The eyes sparkled and the curls nodded assent, and the lips rippled out:

"I guess so—the teachers always sit on that."

DEAFER THAN AN ADDER.—Utter deafness speedily cured was never so well defined as in Hood's tale of a trumpet:

There was Mrs. F.,
So very deaf,
She might have worn a percussion cap,
And been hit on the head without hearing it snap.

A youth of nine or ten summers who attends the Sabbath School, and is one of those "infants terrible," was asked by his teacher not very long since "what the phylacteries of the Pharisees were?" "Broad hems such as ladies wear on their dresses," was the reply. "But the Pharisees didn't wear them for the same reason the ladies do, did they?" "O, yes," was the wicked answer, "to be seen of men?"

Two ingenious citizens of Springfield, Massachusetts, have got a patent for an apparatus by which the street lamps of a whole city can be lighted instantaneously by means of an electric battery.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY VIRTUE of an execution issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the county of Multnomah, and to me directed, upon a decree by said Court rendered in a suit for foreclosure of a mechanic's lien, wherein Estes and Stimpson are plaintiffs, and J. M. Geo. Kallich is defendant, and wherein A. M. Starr and I. A. Davenport intervened for their interest, and in which suit judgment and decree was rendered in favor of said plaintiffs and against said defendant, J. M. George Kallich, for the sum of $826 40 and for costs and disbursements in the sum of $56 33, and the same was determined and adjudged by said Court to be a valid lien upon the following described property, and that the claims of said Starr, Davenport and Hording, were void so far as plaintiff's claim is concerned.

I will expose to public sale at auction, at the Court House door, on Friday, the 21st day of April, A. D. 1865, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M., and 4 o'clock P. M., the following described property, to satisfy said lien: An ice house upon the east corner of lot eight (8), in block number five (5), in the city Portland, Multnomah county, Oregon, and all the interest which the said J. M. George Kallich has therein as the lessee of the same.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Multnomah County, in a suit wherein George Goltz is plaintiff and John and Susannah Hankins are defendants, and an execution issued out of said Court upon said decree, and to me directed, commanding me to collect by a sale, of the following described real estate, the said judgment amounting to five hundred and forty nine dollars and ninety cents, ($549 90) and interest thereon from November 12, 1863, at eighteen per cent, per annum, and costs and disbursement. I will expose to public sale, in front of the Court House door, in Multnomah County, on Saturday, the 8th day of April A. D., 1865, between the hours of 9 o'clock, A. M., and 4 o'clock, P. M., the following described real estate. The north half of the north east quarter of section 26, township 1 north, range 1 west of Willamette meridian, containing eighty (80) acres, situated in Multnomah County, State of Oregon.

JACOB STITZEL,
Sheriff of Multnomah County, Oregon.

Messrs. TILTON & McFARLAND,
Safe Manufacturers, Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen: From representations made by Mr. Lillie I was induced to purchase of him one of his

So Called "Fire Proof Safes."

On the 18th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and our own with the rest. We trusted our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so called "safe" was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything had been Destroyed.

We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers and you will see that not one of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in this fire, we noticed McKenzie & Hardy just opening their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make) and its contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that from the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. McK. & H.'s cellar—such as lard, pork, etc.,—their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the building [illegible] had but little in the cellar. There was another of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire, being, however, no better than ours.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servants,

(Signed) GEO. L. CHESBOROUGH & CO.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS.

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD, heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an ACTIVE and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY,

EUREKA

IMPROVED SELF-ADJUSTING

CLOTHES WRINGER

AWARDED THE FIRST PREMIUM
AT OREGON STATE FAIR IN 1864.

Abstract from Examining Committee's Report of the San Francisco "MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE" INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION, OF 1864:

"CLOTHES WRINGERS.—A variety of these Excellent Household Helps were found competing for popular favor. Though none of them are entitled to a Premium, we consider the EUREKA, exhibited by M. E. Thayer & Bro., worthy of honorable mention." (NOTE—Both premiums were awarded to articles of Eastern [illegible].)

The EUREKA CLOTHES WRINGERS are made superior to all others in CONVENIENCE and DURABILITY by the use of

PATENT ELLIPTICAL STEEL SPRINGS,

Which produce a UNIFORM PRESSURE upon garments and Clothes of every size.

The IMPROVED EUREKA has the HINGE CLAMP, which will fit any Tub or Box perfectly. Its construction is simple and excellent. Every Family should have one! It will soon RE-PAY ITS COST IN SAVING Time Labor and Clothes.
